

ARTICULATION CALENDAR

Use the sound your child is having difficulty with and try the following activities

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY sing a song that has your child's sound in it	go shopping and look for items that have your child's sound in them	phone a friend/relative who has your child's sound in their name	go to a restaurant and read the menu emphasizing your child's sound	while dressing your child pick out clothes that have your child's sound	play a game with your child that has their sound	watch a TV show with your child and talk about it emphasizing their sound
play dress up with your child (in mommy's closet) and put clothes on with your child's sound	go for a walk and point out things you see that have your child's sound	at lunch time talk about the food that has your child's sound	go to a library and borrow a book that has your child's sound	mail a letter to your child with their sound	at bath time pick some water toys with your child's sound	let your child help put dishes away giving them things with their sound look through a magazine with your child and cut out pictures that have their sound	go swimming and talk about colours of bathing suits, emphasizing their sound	pick a toy to play with your child that has their sound	make up a sound with your child that has your child's sound in it	in the backyard, find 3 items with your child's sound in it	look through a family photo album and talk about people that have your child's sound in their name	rent a movie with your child that has their sound in the title let your child help make dinner, give your child a job with their sound	read a book emphasizing your child's target sound	while dressing your child, pick out clothes that have your child's sound	let your child help set the table with items that have their sound	take a drive in the car and point out items that have your child's sound in them	go shopping and look for items that have your child's sound	at dinner time, talk about food items that have your child's sound go to the dollar store, let your child pick out something that has their sound in it	pick 1-2 toys to play with your child that has their sound	make a snack that has your child's sound in it	colour a picture with your child that has their sound	invite a friend/relative over that has your child's sound in their name	at breakfast, talk about the food items that have your child's sound	read a story that has your child's sound in it